COVID ARRANGEMENTS

We will continue for the time being with our current arrangements for Sunday services as they have served us well. However, do remember that if for any reason you are unable to join us in person, you can always join us on FCC.

NEWER & ONE-OFF ITEMS:

LATERAL FLOW TESTS

We can help each other out here. If you have tests to spare, or need a test, please let Sam Powell know and she will put out a message on the church e-mail and hopefully we can pair households up.

CALENDARS

The 2022 SFC calendars are available to collect from church or from Roger and Pauline's home, 60 Bifield Road. If you would like one but are unable to pick it up, please let Pauline know (01275 838116) and we will deliver it.

WHERE IS LANCE?

It won't come as any surprise that Lance and Carol will again be around all this month ... and for the foreseeable future!

FELLOWSHIP NEWS

Leticia Adams and Ryan Collins – I am thrilled to announce Leticia's and Ryan's engagement. This is wonderful news!!!! They are planning to marry this year.

Frank Kohler – He is very much confined to his bed and is extremely weak at the moment.

Rebecca Mason – We are so thankful that Carol has been given special permission to continue to visit Rebecca - thank you all for your prayers! However, this coming week is the crunch week for her digestive system. She can only be sent to an intense rehab unit (which she needs to go to) if she can hold ordinary food down, which isn't happening at the moment, or if she has a major operation to install a feeding system, which she really doesn't want to have.

Pat Morse – She is still awaiting further guidance over what to do about her poor breathing.

Gordon and Pat Richards – This Monday was the date of their daughter Christine's funeral. Please pray for a very special blessing on Gordon, Pat and Glyn.

Sandra Wright – She has now settled in very well to a nursing home in Shirehampton. This is much closer to where her son lives.
